

BAUHAUS

PHOTOS AND OBSERVATIONS BY DAVE CHEETHAM

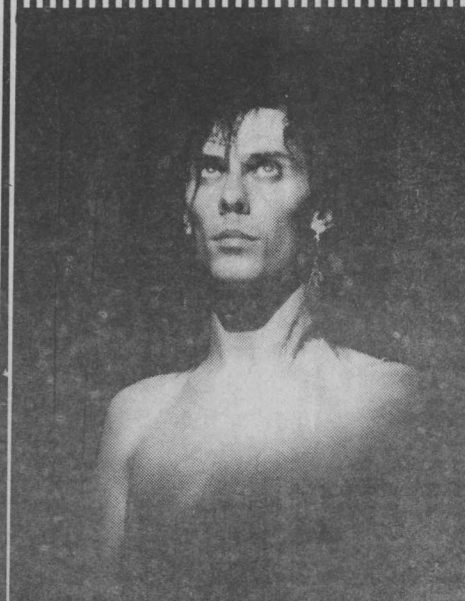

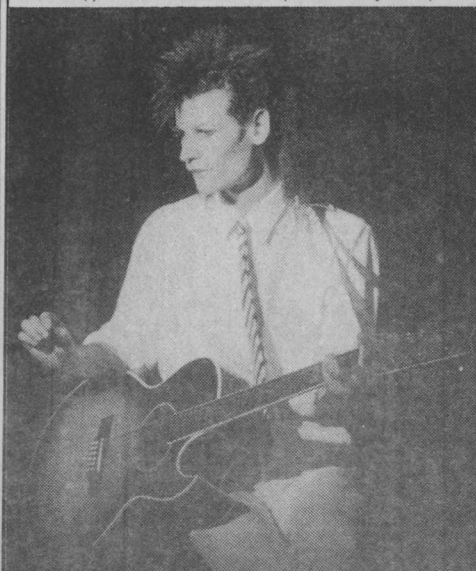

The stuff on Murphy's face is ultra violet reflecting dye that he uses in combination with an ultra violet lamp usually for "Man With the X-ray Eyes" or "Stigmante Mytra" (or however you spell it).

EDITORS NOTE: Dave has a great collection of Bauhaus photos he's accumulated. You can write to him as follows: Dave Cheetham, Stonepit Cottage, Stonepit Lane, Henfield W. Sussex, BN5 9QU England.

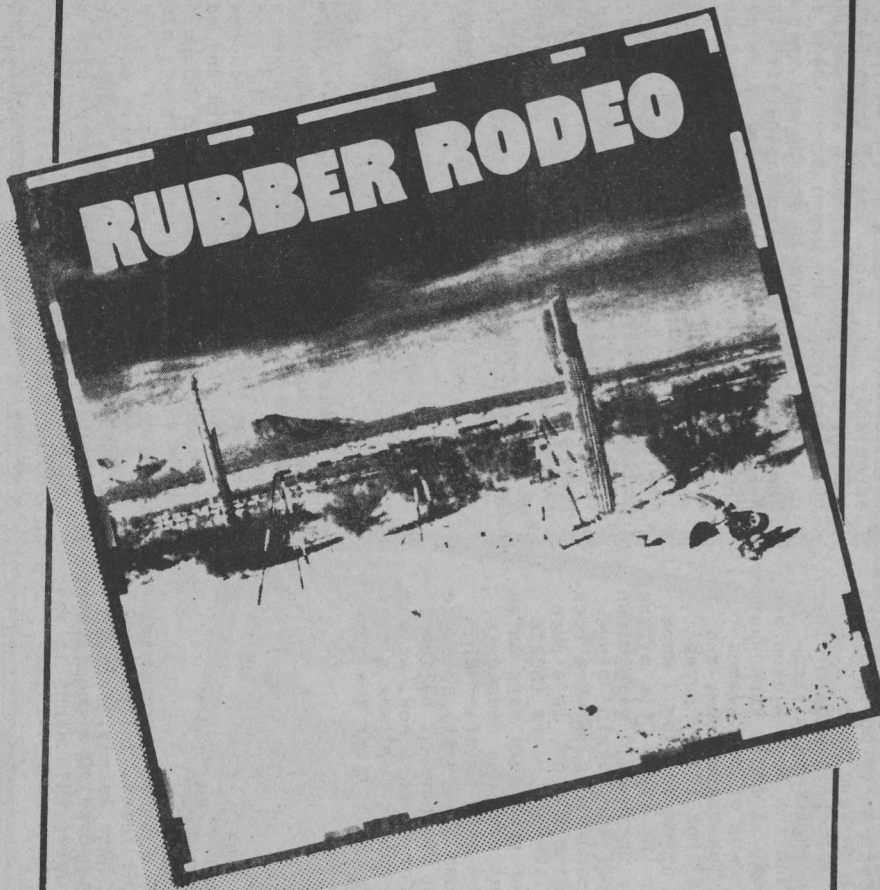

From Birmingham: under the strobe light at the end of "Terror Couple Killed Colonel".

Daniel Ash in a typical Bowie pose with his 12 stringer so this is probably "Spirit".

The lighting from a single spot high end to the front is an unusual Bauhaus feature. Normally Murphys' light comes from a group of 3 spots at his feet.
